Special announcements:

- 1. Anonymous donor has given us $50,000 so we've achieved our goal!
- Georgia Pacific we were hoping for a cash donation, unfortunately they can't do cash donations right now. However, they have promised in-kind donation of relevant materials for the City.
- 3. Valerie Morelli Roswell Recreation Association we hosted her last night. Her organization is not interested in supporting our cause at this time. But they are excited about partnering with us in the future. Outdoor classroom was one of the things they're interested in, but they usually go with city recommendations, so we'll need to coordinate across these organizations.
- 4. Jessica is a published author! Hooray and congratulations Jessica!

Agenda:

- 1. Introduction of Guest: Allen Ray not in attendance
- 2. Review and Acceptance of January Meeting Minutes
- a. There are a few corrections needed for the date and exact bank balance
- b. Vote for approval with the necessary corrections; passed unanimously.
- 3. Financial Report
- a. New format that Michelle S. has put together for us. The good news is that we now have more detail.

- Candise C. is experienced in accounting, so Michelle S. is going to pay her extra directly for additional support.
- c. Candise C. recommends us moving to QuickBooks online there's a limited cost for this. QB will let us do Cash Flow and Reconciliation more easily. We will propose an email vote once we have an official cost.
- d. Steve G. asked Bob H. if he'd ever seen a challenge to the books. Bob H. replied no, only if there's a question about what/how you're doing something will someone question it.
- e. Question some charges we have:
 - i. Square: It costs us $16/month even if we're not using it. Kelly C. confirmed we can suspend it; we need to figure out who configured the account. Sara H.?
 - ii. GoDaddy: they charged us $50 twice last year.; we determined the charge was for web hosting and email address support.
- f. Donors we need to follow-up with Phoenix Circle members, to ensure we've shared tax documents. We need to do this by April 15th.
- g. Website Brett Player still assists us with the site. And he's a great, appreciated volunteer.
 - i. Steve G. has connected Brett with Ben H. & Zepplin F. to find out more.
- h. Suggestion from Ben H. he's suggesting that we shift over to Google from GoDaddy for our website. We can house documents all centrally. Ben will look into this.

4. New Business

- Earth Day
 - O The City is conducting an event April 18th and we will be supporting that event. Dena B. is working with the Events Committee. There is a training event prior to the event for volunteers. The City is working on the event, the name, the logo, etc. The main concern is needed volunteers. Keep Roswell Beautiful and FOMHG are both involved. Volunteers needed by March 19th. For the event, FOMHG is welcome to take over the courtyard.
 - Sign-up Genius for us. We'd like to blast this out for our people via MailChimp.
 We can leverage this as a beginning to start our volunteer organization. Dena B.
 & Candise C. to connect off-line.
 - O Wednesday, April 22nd We're going to host RAISE THE ROOF. We'll get entertainment, we'll have Solar Panels, Tent, Azalea planting (to kick-off the Azalea Festival which starts the next day.)
 - Dena B. needs the logistics details from us a soon as possible.
 - The committee will get together as soon as possible to determine those logistics, details, etc.
- Joint Proposal with Arts Fund
 - O 4 of our board members ALSO sit on the Arts Fund. We want the City, the Arts Fund, and FOMHG to have a joint event. She's looking at Cheekwood in Nashville as an inspiration. Planning to do a short-term Exhibition. Thinking about calling for artists to create cool Treehouses. We're thinking a few weeks, later this year. We (FOMHG/City) have the location/facility, the Arts Fund has the ability to call the artists. Outdoor Art Show.
 - Susan R. will establish this committee, and start working with the City and Arts Fund. Vote proposed for the establishment of a new committee; passed unanimously.
- Interim Executive Director position discussion
 - We added two staff positions, in our pitch to Georgia Power, Ben H. has suggested that we elevate the position to Interim Executive Director which would give gravitas and authority to his approach to our potential donors.

- Upon further reflection, our Board leadership thinks that "Executive Director" implies certain things that may or may not be part of the way we're setup and established. Therefore we think that it may be a better way to say this, which would be Community Engagement Director.
 - Steve G. thinks that's most important is the structure around the role who does what, who supports who, and how that all comes together.
 - Question from Bob H. didn't we have an Executive Director in Sara H?
 Answer, no, she was Communications Director.
 - Question from Steve G doesn't the Arts Fund have an Executive Director? Answer, just started now as there is a paid position.
 - Question from Susan R doesn't Friends of Bulloch have an Executive Director? Yes, they do (confirmed by Dena B.)
 - Ben H. said that role and title of Interim Executive Director made sense to have one streamlined contact for the Board members. He's okay with a different position/title. He wants to ensure that we have the right structure to support our needs. He stepped away for the further conversation.
 - Q from Jessica H. on specific concerns. Mike H. shared that there are questions about the role existing long-term and that the structure between two paid staff would need to be considered.
 - Candise C. shared that Ben H. has been helping us get the board moving in the right direction. And he's taken a blunt role in getting the board together.
 - Susan R. shared her thoughts.
 - Bob H. shared his thoughts.
 - Dena B. shared that the title would grant him more responsibilities workflow, organization, and handling our growing pains.
 - Mike H. shared thoughts on how Ben H. and Candise C. could work together to be more successful.
 - Katie T. shared thoughts.
 - Michelle S. shared thoughts.
 - Steve G. & Kelly C. brought forward a thought on focusing the role on engaging City and State officials and other organizations
 - Mike H. shared that Ben H. has been very helpful in the background of making us more accountable and more organized.
 - After conversation, we took Interim Executive Director off the table as we aren't mature enough as an organization to have an Executive Director and we don't want interim without being able to fund it longer-term.
- O Proposal: We propose the roles of Communications Director (Candise C., no change) and Engagement Director (Ben H., changing from current title of Fundraising Director.)
 - Vote taken; passed unanimously
- Vision and Values Statement
- Membership Levels: new structure proposed, vote taken, passed unanimously
 - O Membership meeting date needed. To coordinate after the meeting.
 - State of the Union Mike H.
- MOU revision Review: removed from the agenda, we'll do via email after the meeting.
- Board Member Activity and Accountability Ben H.
- Committee Activity database (shared)
- Announcing $50,000

- O Dena B. asks that we write up the statement for the City.
- Let's call a planning meeting between the City and FOMHG to plan out next steps.
- We'll work with the City and plan what's next after we speak (maybe after Tuesday's landscaping meeting.)
